2. TYPE OF AGENCY

(a) Sole Agency

June 2013

Where the Agents act on the Seller's behalf as sole agents, the seller will be liable to pay remuneration to the Agents, in addition to any other costs or charges agreed, if at any time unconditional contracts for sale of the property are exchanged with a Buyer introduced by the Agents during the period of their sole agency or whom the Agents had negotiations about the property during that period, or, with a Buyer introduced by another agent during that period.

The Agents will be able to claim the agreed commission for a period of 6 months after expiry of the sole agency agreement, if a Buyer, introduced during the sole agency period goes to purchase the property within 6 months of expiry of the agreement.

Termination of sole agency

Either party can terminate a sole agency at any time by giving 14 days notice, which should be confirmed in writing.

DOUBLE COMMISSION WARNING

If any other agent introduces a Buyer to the Seller during the period of the sole agency agreement, this will be regarded as an introduction by the Agent and the seller will have to pay the Agent's agreed fee, as well as the other agent.

(b) Multiple Agency

For the purposes of this contract, multiple agency means that the Seller can instruct several estate agents to act on a multiple agency basis. Only the successful agent who introduces the Buyer or has negotiations with the Buyer will be entitled to commission fees.

Termination of multiple or joint agency

Either party can terminate a multiple agency at any time by giving 14 days notice, which should be confirmed in writing.

Email: info@stonesestateagents.co.uk

There is no fee payable if the Seller finds their own Buyer. However, please note that a Buyer will be deemed as introduced by the Agent if a Buyer finds out that the property is for sale by seeing the Agent's 'For Sale' board or any other form of advertising such as internet marketing or email notification that the property is for sale.

(d) Sub Agency Agreements

In circumstances where the Agents wish to enter into sub-agency agreements, the Seller must be notified in writing.

3. FOR SALE BOARDS

The Agents ask permission to erect display boards at the property to assist in the marketing of the property. Any such boards will comply with the Town and Country Planning (Control of Advertisements) Regulations 1987, as amended.

The Seller consents that the Agents may erect a For Sale board at the property.

The Agent accepts liability for any claim arising under these Regulations in connection with the board, unless the action arises as a result of a further board being put up by another Agent.

4. FEES

(a) Fees Payable for sole / multiple agency

Commission fees are payable as a result of the circumstances outlined in general condition 2 above. Fees are due at completion of the sale.

(b) Responsibility of Fees

The responsibility for the payment of these fees remains with the Sellers named above.

Under the terms and conditions of this agreement, the Sellers are obliged to meet the payment schedule.

5. EXPENSES

No additional expenses will be charged by the Agents unless agreed with the Seller, in writing. Any agreement will include an itemised breakdown of costs.

6. OFFERS

The Agent will, promptly and accurately, forward all offers received from potential Buyers at any time up until contracts have been exchanged, unless the offer is an amount or type which the Seller has specifically instructed the Agents, in writing, not to pass on. A written or computerised record of all offers received will be kept (including the date and time such offers were received and the client's response). This record will be available to the Seller on request.

7. ACCESS TO PREMISES

If the Agent holds the key to the property, the Agent must accompany any viewings of that property, unless the Agent and Seller agree otherwise in writing. If the Agent is arranging for someone to view an occupied property, the Agent must agree the arrangements with the occupier beforehand.

If access to the property is required by a person on behalf of the Buyer (builder, tradesman), and the Agent is unable to accompany that person, this must be made clear to the Seller beforehand and his express permission obtained. The only exception to this will be a property surveyor who is a member of RICS.

In the case of unoccupied or vacant properties, where an emergency arises relating to gas, electricity, oil or anything that poses a danger to the property, the Agent has authority to arrange tradesmen from their panel to attend the property to make safe any appliances. The Agent will endeavour to contact the vendors prior to this and invoices will be raised directly to the vendors.
